Important Message from Sonoma County Pride

Street Closures on Saturday, June 3, 2023

On Saturday, June 3, 2023, Sonoma County Pride will host its 38th annual LGBTQI Pride Parade and Festival on 4th Street and Old Courthouse Square in downtown Santa Rosa. The parade begins at 11:00am and ends at 12:30pm. The festival begins at 12:00pm and ends at 5:00pm. Come join the fun - Everyone Welcome!

To allow time to set up, clean up and provide a safe environment during the event for our community, the following road closures will be in effect:

Closed Downtown Areas Saturday, June 3:

6am to 5:30pm

- ⊕ Both side streets adjacent to Old Courthouse Square.
- ⊕ Fourth Street from Mendocino Av to B Street.

6am to 12:30pm

- ⊕ Mendocino Av from Fourth St to Seventh St.
- ⊕ Fourth Street from Brookwood Ave. to Mendocino.

10am to 12:30pm

- ⊕ 300 Block of Hope Street.

Notices will be posted more than 24-hours in advance and during those times, No Parking restrictions will be in effect, which include towing along portions of the following streets: The two side streets on Old Courthouse Square, 4th Street from Brookwood to B Street, Mendocino from Fourth Street to Seventh Street and the 300 block of Hope Street.

Sonoma County Pride is sending this courtesy notice in an effort to provide the residents and businesses along the event footprint advance notice to allow you to make any needed adjustments to accommodate the event and to help minimize the impact in the area. The Sonoma County Pride planning committee appreciates your support of this historical and significant annual community event.

Amplified Sound Notice

The Sonoma County Pride parade and festival will involve amplified sound from 10:00am to 5:00 PM on Saturday, June 2 in downtown Santa Rosa. The amplified sound will consist of announcements, recorded music and live musical performances.

We encourage the local residents to be a part of the festivities downtown on Pride weekend. Our full schedule of weekend events is available on our website
